UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL SANCTIONS AGAINST HAITI

MSD Notice No. 4 announced the adoption of United Nations Security Council Resolution 841(1993) imposing sanctions against Haiti.

On the 27 August, 1993 the United Nations Security Council adopted with immediate effect Resolution No. 861(1993) which in paragraph 1 of the operative part states that the measures set out in paragraphs 5 to 9 of Resolution 841(1993) are hereby suspended and in paragraph 3 of the same part expresses the readiness of the Council to review "the measures in paragraph 5 to 14 of Resolution 841(1993) with a view to lifting them definitively".

The restrictions on Maltese ships announced in MSD Notice No. 4 are therefore also suspended.
